

Boiler plate

Established in 2006, Voip Unlimited is a UK based Internet Telephony Service Provider (ITSP). Voip Unlimited specialise in voice communications over IP and business data solutions, delivered over its privately owned reliable network designed specifically for voice and without compromise. Through trading for over a decade, Voip Unlimited have established a strong reputation for reliable, secure services and tailored solutions whilst still being cost effective. Customers include Formula One teams, Healthcare Institutions and Government Agencies. As a central supplier within the Voice over IP market, Voip Unlimited are known for reliability, speed and quality with experienced departments able to design, deliver, install and support to first class standards.

